COMMUNITY EDUCATION SEMINAR

MARCH 31, 2020 • 5:30 – 7 P.M.

OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY • WES WATKINS AUDITORIUM

SPEAKERS:

DR. CHAN M. HELLMAN

is a professor of social work at the University of Oklahoma and Director of The Hope Research Center. He has written more than 150 scientific publications and has presented at numerous national and international conferences worldwide. Chan’s research is focused on hope as a psychological strength helping children and adults overcome trauma and adversity. Chan is the author of the award winning book “Hope Rising: How the Science of Hope Can Change Your Life” with his co-author Casey Gwinn published by Morgan James.

TOPIC: Hope Rising: How the Science of Hope Can Change Your Life

DR. KARI PRATT

is the Assistant Director of Health Education at Oklahoma State University (OSU) and an instructor in OSU Community Health Sciences program. She serves as the lead health education resource for the university by providing leadership and guidance for a variety of student and professional organizations. Dr Pratt utilizes innovative and theoretically based methods to create, plan, promote and disseminate both qualitative and quantitative research and health education programs on the OSU campus and within the greater public health arena.

TOPIC: Campus and Community Mental Health Initiatives

OPEN TO PUBLIC – NO CHARGE

RSVP by March 24 to rpc17ok@gmail.com

Support provided by Potts Family Foundation OKC